Young Man with a Plan Weekly Update October 1, 2018

Groups have started up in our NEW Boston Prep space and Codman!

11th grade students have been making the 9th graders feel welcome

We all have been discussing how the program helps young men understand themselves and the world as they navigate high school

Recruiting and school leader meetings continue over the next few weeks with an October 15 due date for registration

Before group students can hang out, do homework and play games
